May 6, 2010 Top Kill Peer Review

Project Description

Junk-shot, Bullhead and Momentum Kill Peer Review - Participate in an overview of presented information and resources required for successful implementation of titled objectives and to assist with the identification of risks associated with prescribed program. Additionally, identify any support or considerations which may be required. Provide constructive feedback to BP through an engaged participation with industry experts assembled from various well control points of view.