From: Lockett, Tim
Sent: 17 May 2010 23:00
To: Hill, Trevor
Subject: RE: Pressure build-up

2) Maybe I am being pessimistic but my first thought when I heard of the fall in pressure upstream of the BOP is that this is bad news rather than good, my thought would go to reduced restriction within the BOP.

The insertion of the Inconel pipe has increased back pressure at the kink - we should have seen an increase in pressure transmitted back to the upstream side of the BOP.

Tim