Constant net pay input assumptions were used for all of the simulations and it is acknowledged that varying net pay is probably more likely; this may explain some of the offsets between actual recorded data and the simulation results. However, the model results can be confidently utilized by the investigation team to test different well flow hypotheses when used in conjunction with other sources of information such as recorded real time data and witness accounts.